THE 1964

COMET

Bellevue High School
Bellevue, Ohio
Volume 44

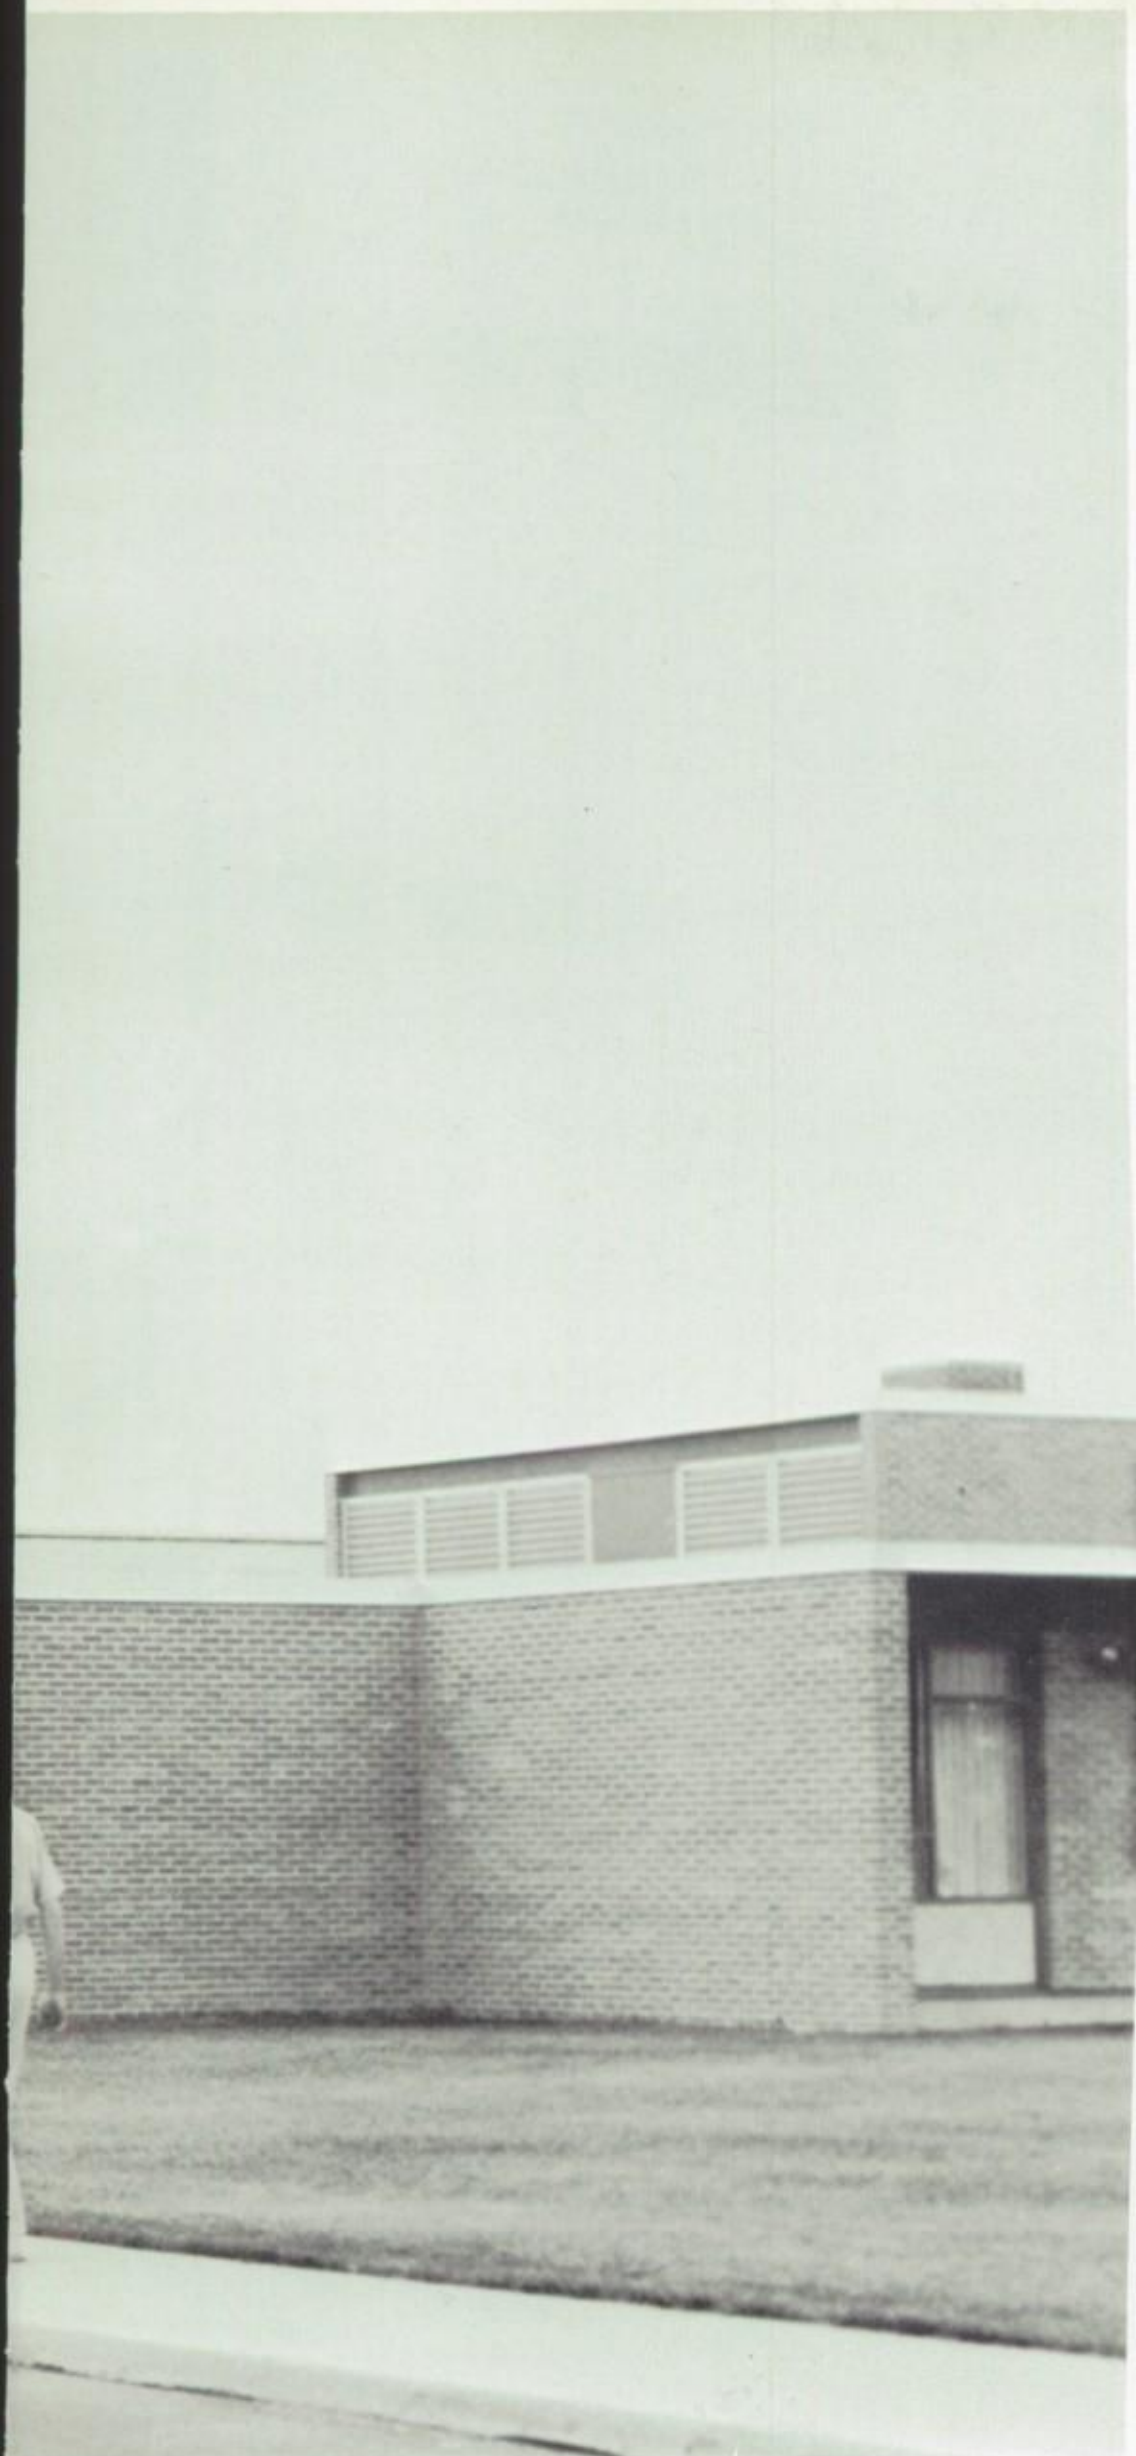

Foreword

Each one of us has his own thoughts as to the meaning of the new Senior High School. To the seniors, it means pride in being the first class to graduate from the new school. To the faculty and underclassmen, it means the advantages of new educational facilities.

We, the 1964 COMET staff, present this book as a memoir of the first year in the new Bellevue Senior High School.

The First Autumn . . .

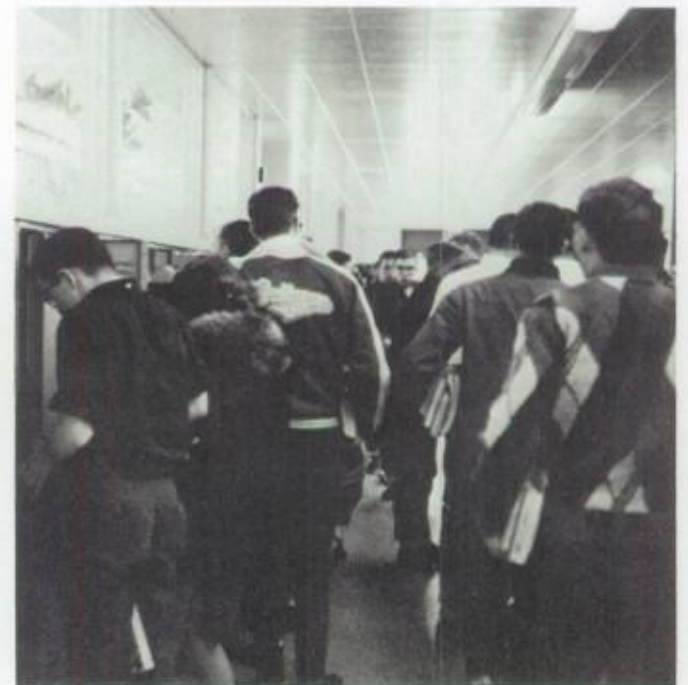

Completion of the new school in August.

These lockers are small!

Early morning study after that late night out.

It's a mad, mad, mad, mad world!

Pep assembly in front of the new Senior High School.

Absolutely no more mud fights!

The seriousness of a football game.

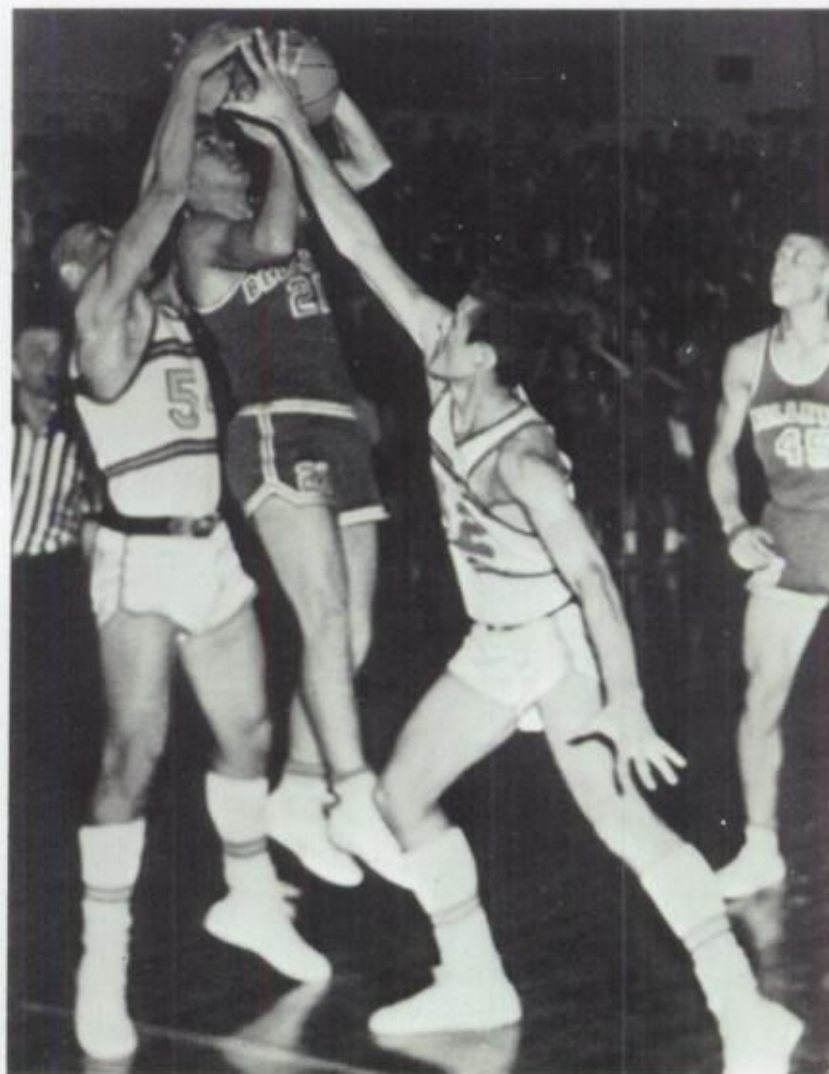

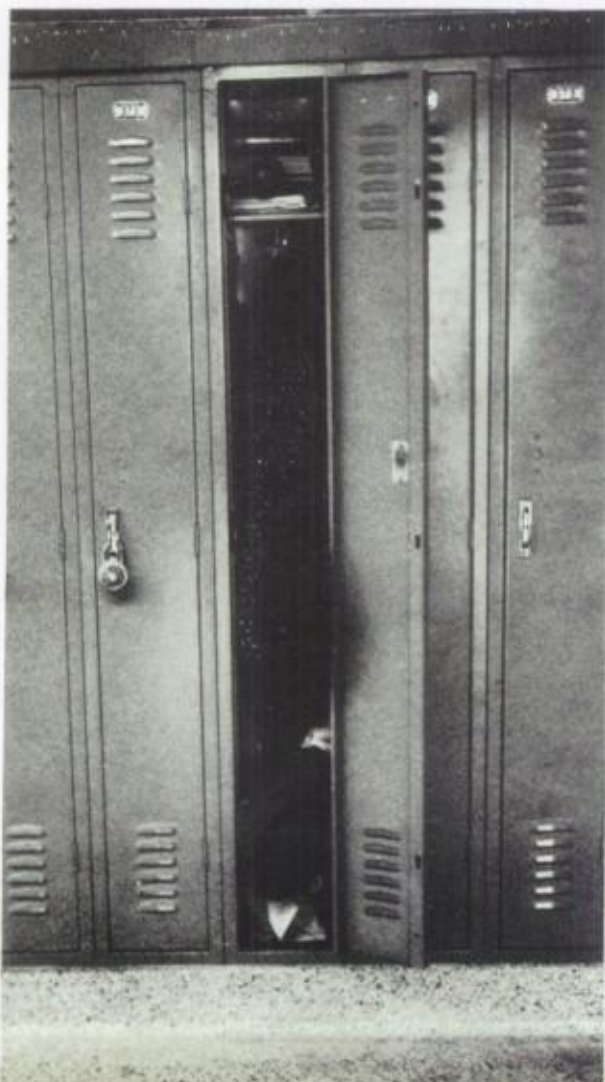

Destruction of the old Junior High.

The First Winter . . .

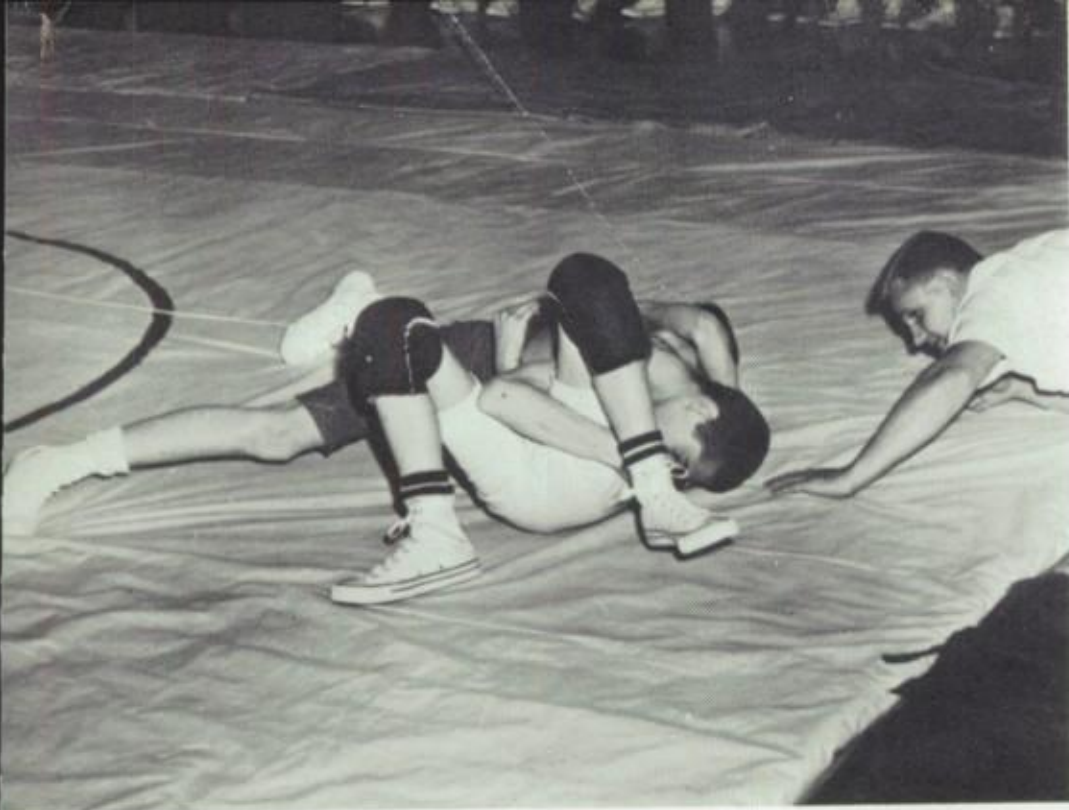

The school was almost snowed in.

An apple for a teacher.

Who's the grabby one!

Who's who?

Janet Miller, Pat Miano, and Vicki Good prepare for a pep assembly.

The senior girls entertained at the class party.

The senior boys add "class" to the cafeteria.

The First Spring

Commencement speaker was Mr. Bonds, President of Baldwin Wallace College.

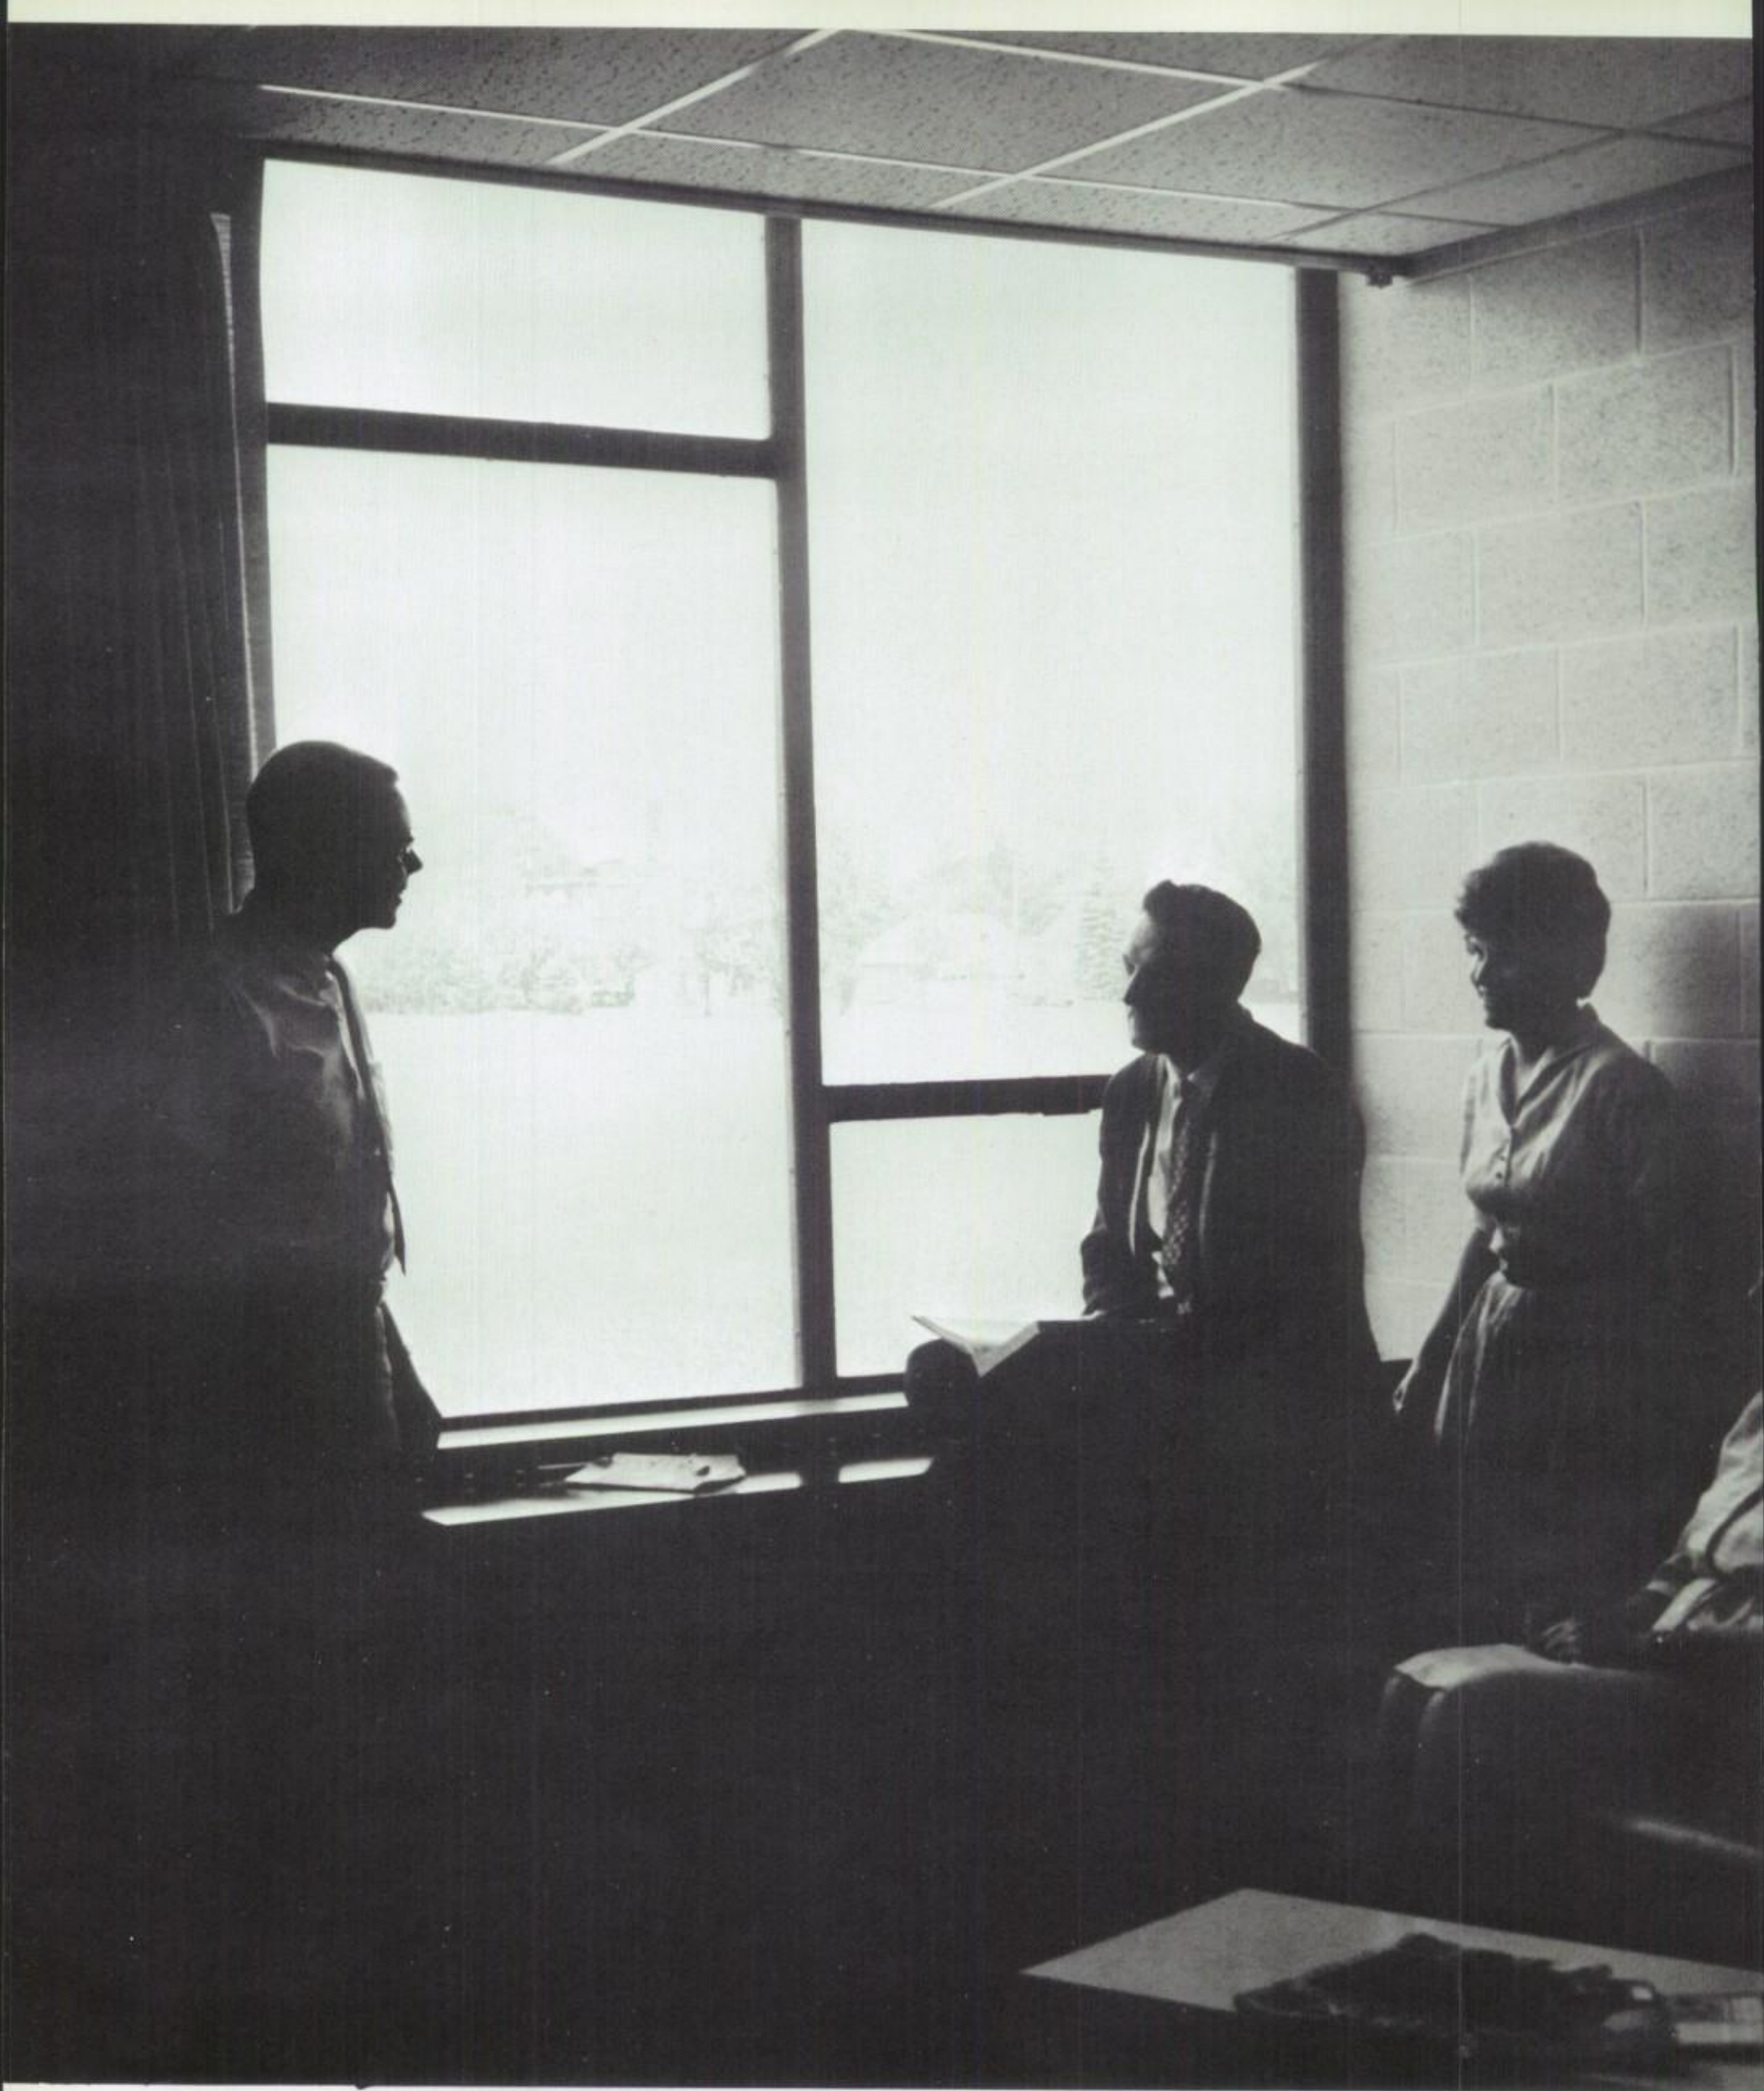

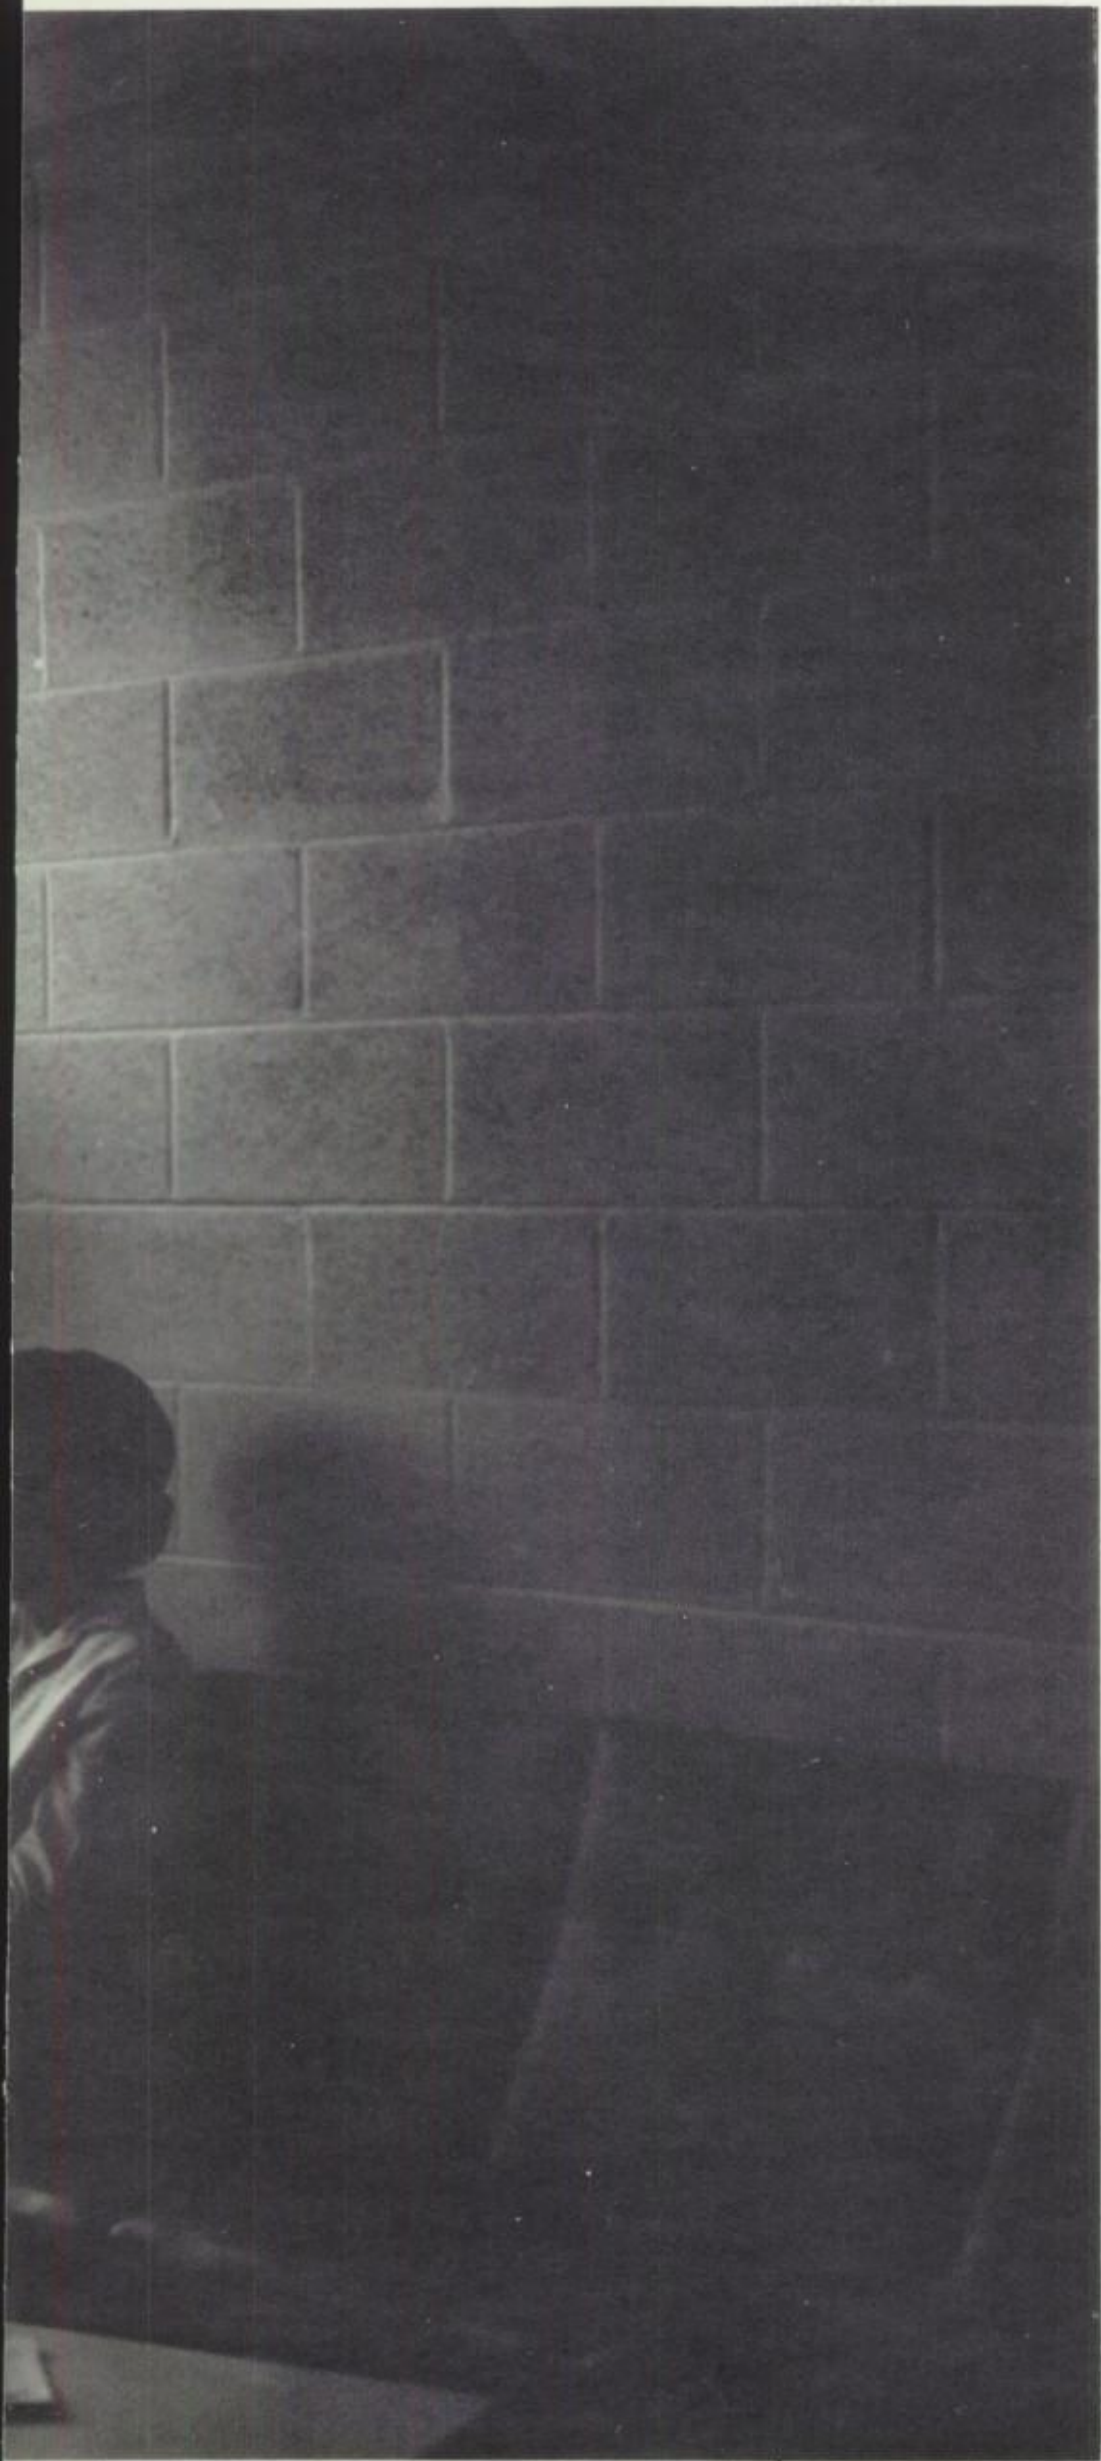

The Comet Staff works very hard in order to make the final deadline.

Basketball coach Mr. Morrison put in a hard earned year.

Faculty

Academic

This drawing is exact.

Manual Arts

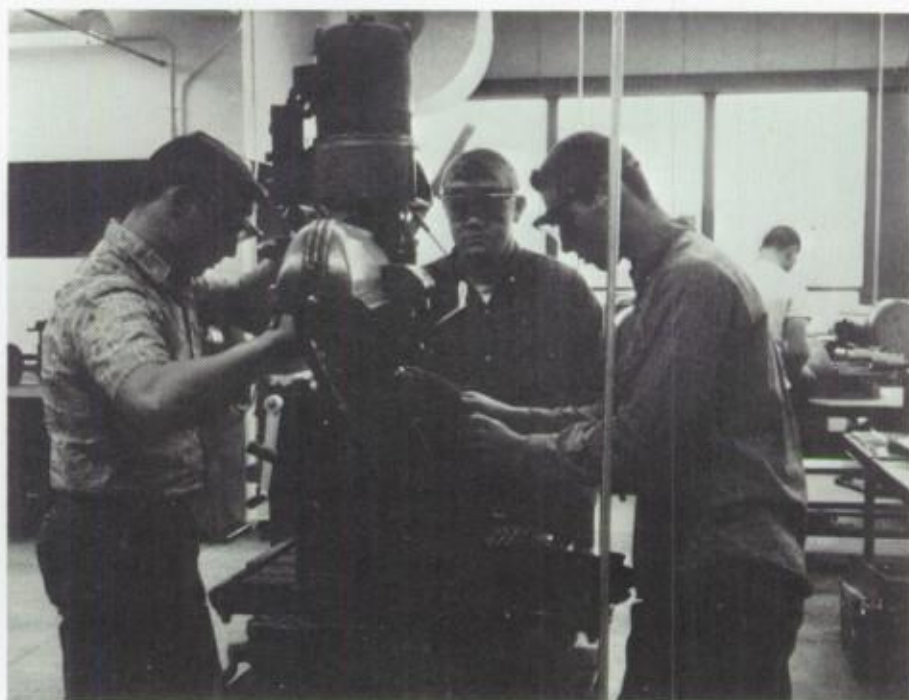

A student enrolled in manual arts participates in classes of both metal shop and wood shop. Mr. Joseph Brugone is in charge of the industrial arts program.

Mechanical drawing I and II and other courses are offered. These classes are taught by Mr. Lowell Shaffer. Home economics courses are taught by Miss Tommas. Through the four year course girls learn the arts of cooking and sewing.

A student also learns the fundamentals of driving through driver's education. This class is taught by Mr. Roland Morris.

Janice Myers and Marlene Groff use the new kitchen.

Metal shop students use new equipment.

Road work in driver's education.

"I love the beat, beat, beat . . ."

Fran Hunt takes time for extra practice.

Orchestra members hard at work.

Music

The choirs, which include Sophomore Girls' Choir, a cappella choir, and a selected mixed group, the Choraliers, presents concerts throughout the school year. In the spring the choirs participate in contests. The director is Mr. James Gribble.

Under the direction of Miss Louella Wolford the orchestra present many concerts. They also attend an orchestra festival.

The band spent its beginning months of school practicing for the football game performances. The remainder of the year is spent preparing for concerts and contests. The band is under the direction of Mr. Robert Leckrone and Mr. Robert Dubbert.

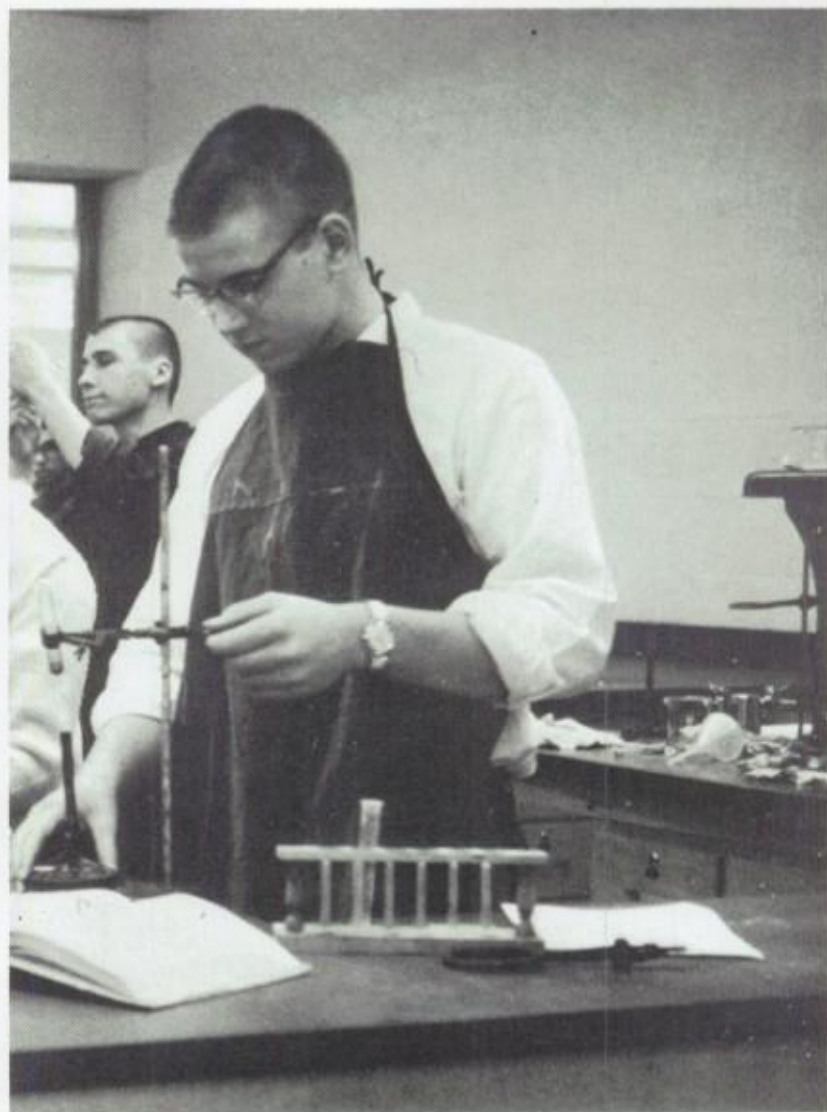

Choir members practice for their winter concert.

Science

BHS science students learn fundamental facts and principles and the application of these principles in interpreting and solving scientific problems. Courses begin at the junior high level and continue through the senior year.

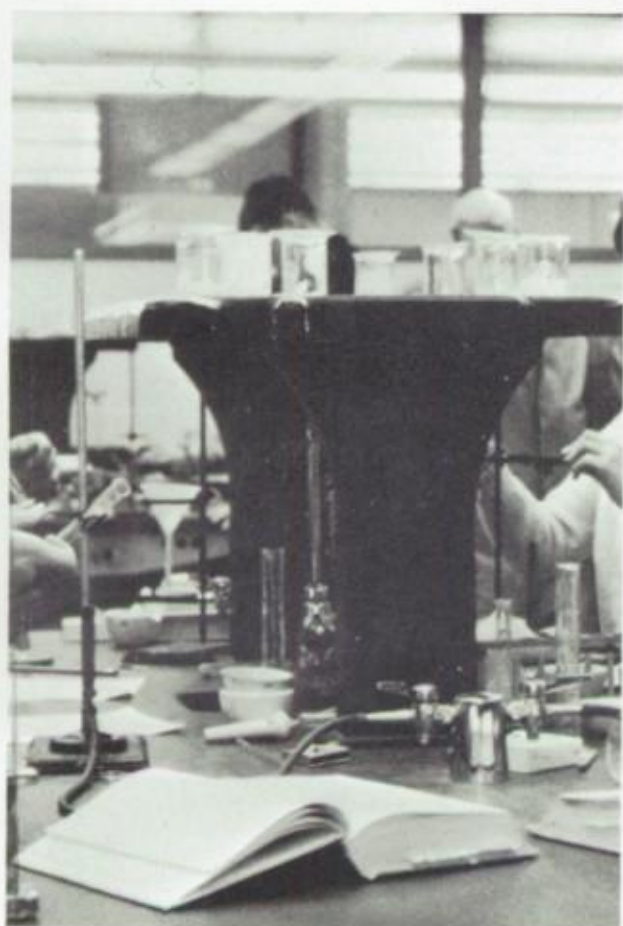

Specialization begins in the high school. Mr. Burrell Hoffman and Mr. Lowell Shaffer teach biology to sophomores, while Mr. Herbert Wolfe instructs juniors in chemistry. Seniors may choose either physical science, taught by Mr. Blomeke, or physics, taught by Mr. Wilbur White.

Dick Seymour heating sulfur in chemistry.

Mr. Hoffman instructs his biology students.

Chemistry lab.

Mr. Blomeke and physical science students experiment with pulleys.

"Mr. Wolfe, I know that I'm"

Physics students determine specific heat of substances.

Mathematics

Geometry proofs "fall apart nicely" when Mr. Deane explains them.

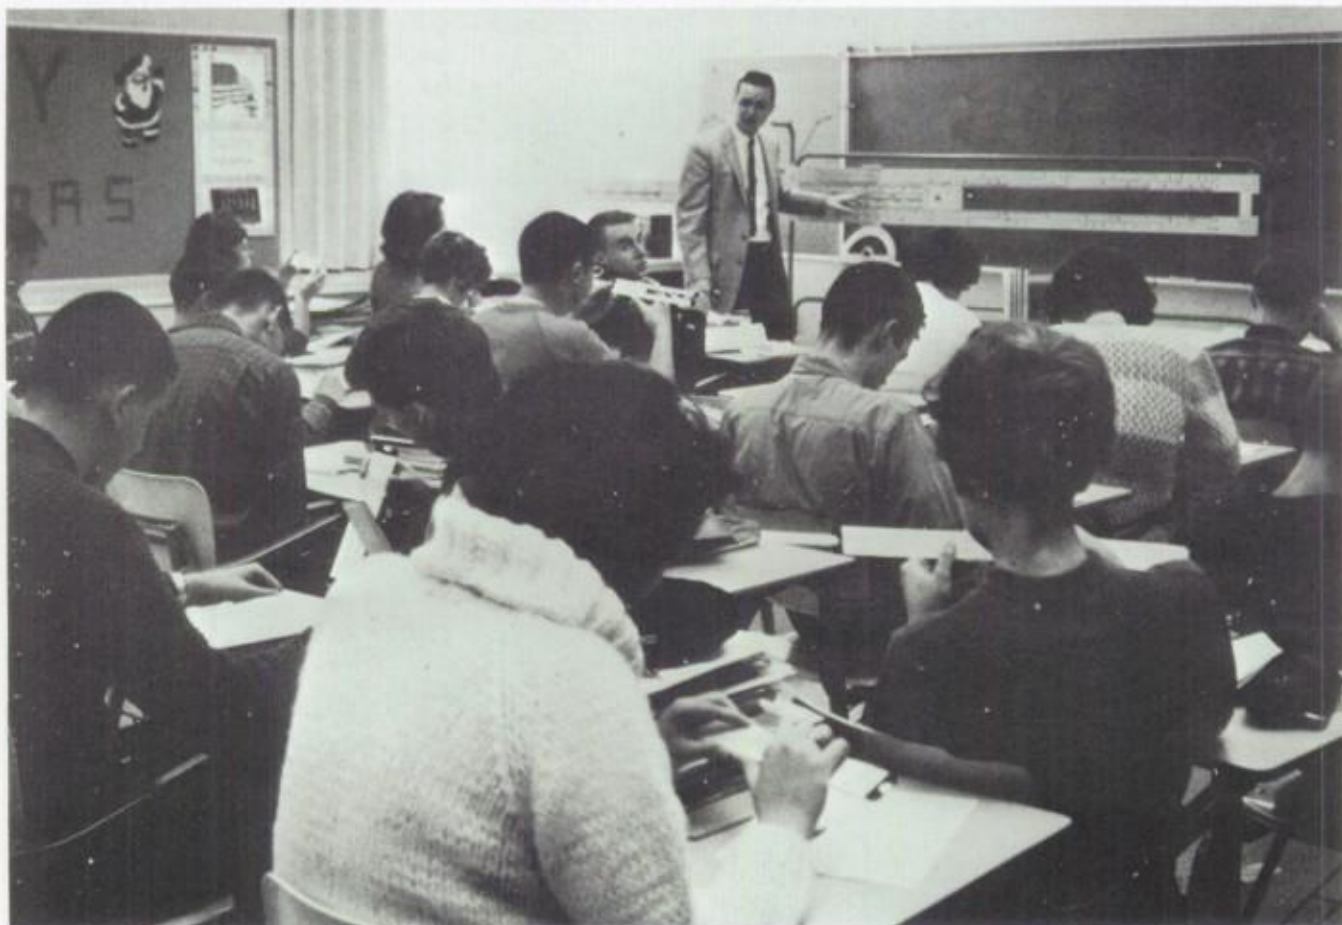

Mathematics holds a challenge for all students, whether it is required or elected.

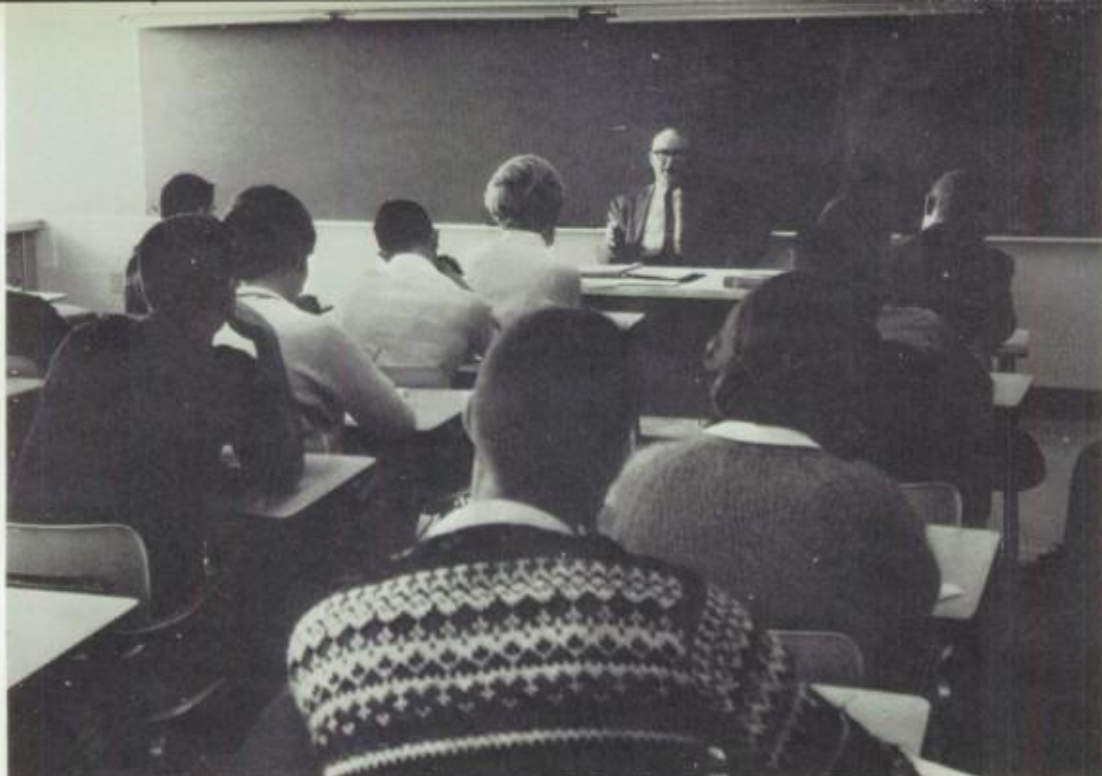

Angles, triangles, and geometry tools baffle students until Mr. Deane shows them how to use theorems so that problems "fall apart nicely". Algebra II, taught by Mr. White, helps students understand more advanced equations, graphs, and story problems. Advanced Mathematics gives college-bound students a firm foundation for advanced studies.

Algebra II students listen as Mr. White explains algebraic equations.

Advanced Math students attempt to master slide rules.

Mr. Ayers commands the attention of his American History students.

Social Studies

The Social Studies Department of BHS is headed by Mr. Donald Stonestreet, Mr. Joseph Ayers, and Mr. David Cress.

World History, taught by Mr. Stonestreet and Mr. Cress, stresses the study of ancient Rome and Greece, advances in European civilization, and presents international relations.

American History, taught by Mr. Ayers, is the study of the development of the United States.

American Government and Economics are taught by Mr. Stonestreet. Government points out the role a student will play as a participating citizen in local, state, and national government. The objective of economics is to interpret the economic principles, along with discussions concerning income taxes, labor problems, and government finances.

Mr. Cress also teaches psychology, a course primarily concerned with the history of the psychological development from its origin to the present time.

"You, too, can be a daffodill."

Mr. Stonestreet explains the functions of our government to the American Government class.

Journalism interests many students.

The trials of typing.

The line-up for office practice.

Business Education

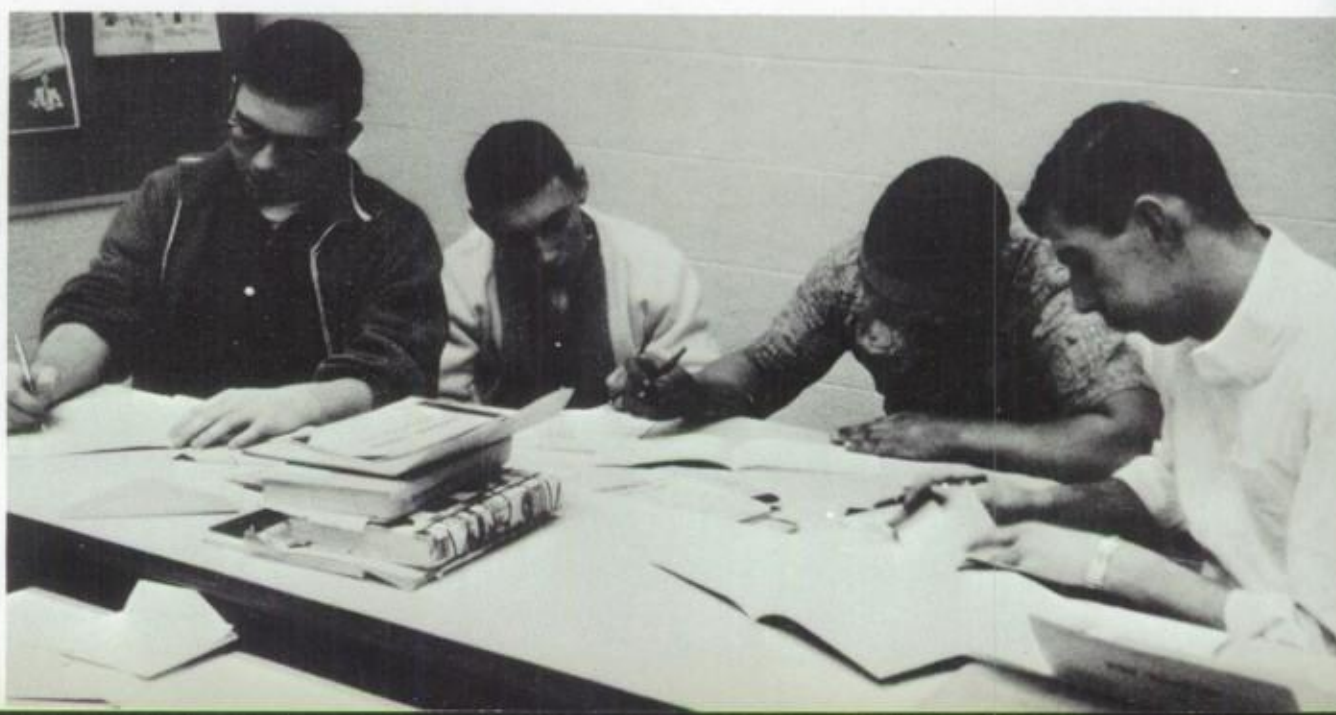

Business Education prepares students who plan to enter into the commercial field. Mr. Rossman, Mr. D'Ettorre, and Mrs. Davenport are the three instructors in this branch of education.

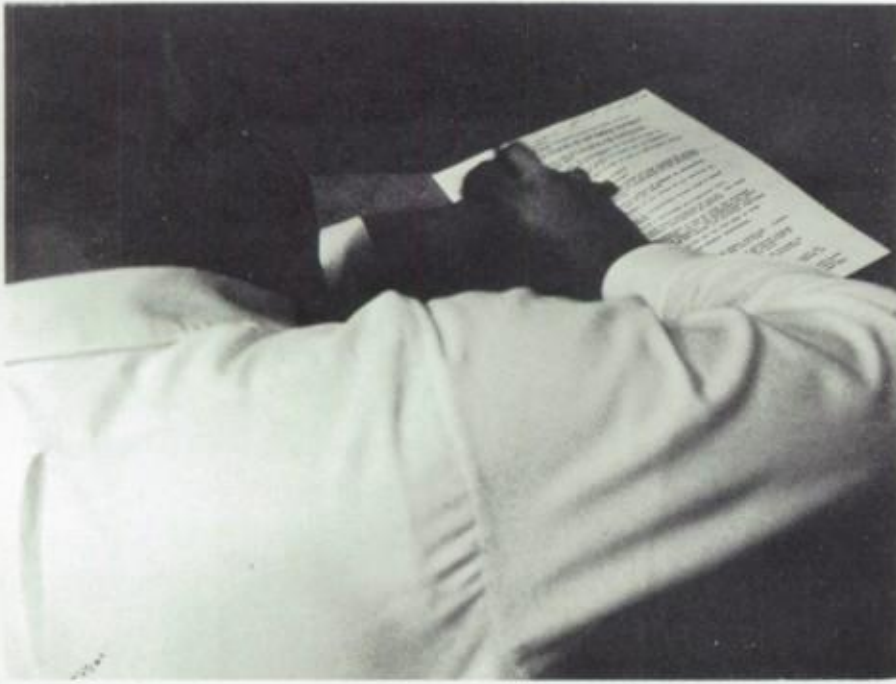

Mr. Rossman, teaches bookkeeping and business arithmetic. Bookkeeping furthers the students knowledge of financial and business arithmetic contains the fundamentals of math.

Mr. D'Ettorre, teaches office practice, business English, commercial law, and journalism. Business English is a review of the fundamentals, while journalism prepares a student for newspaper work. Commercial law is a beginning course in the field of law and students in office practice learn to take dictation and mimeograph.

Mrs. Davenport, teaches typing and shorthand, which instruct the students on the basic skills of business.

Bookkeeping students concentrate on balancing debits and credits.

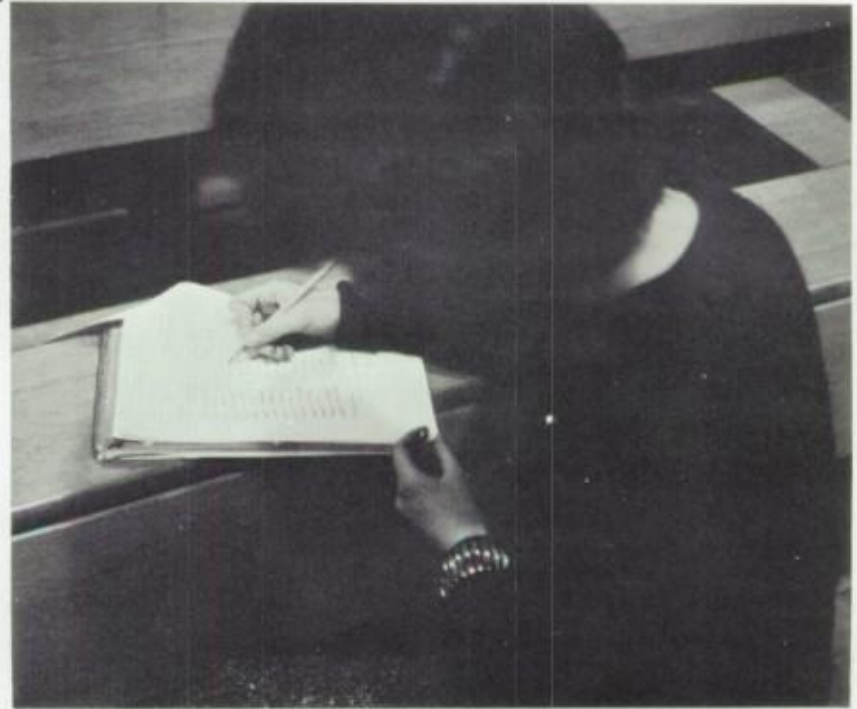

Physical education also includes test taking.

Physical Education

Physical Education classes were instructed by Mrs. Genevieve Pendleton and Mr. Larry Morrison. Their goal was achieved through the new physical fitness program, which included tumbling in addition to the usual sports. New equipment made phys ed more enjoyable.

Physical education includes many aches.

Physical fitness exercise in Phys. Ed.

Gary Sams gives his semester speech.

English

English is a very important subject to all high school students. Through knowledge of it, we learn to improve the art of communication with others in written and oral work.

Miss Ester Schachtele prepares the students of English XII for college study in composition, grammar, and literature.

Mrs. Ann Miller introduces the student of English XI to American literature and strengthens their writing habits.

Mr. Paul Sackett teaches the English X students to enlarge their vocabulary in writing and speaking.

Mrs. Marthella Burrows teaches her students of Spanish I, II, and III to speak and understand the Spanish language and customs.

Mrs. Helen Baker and Miss Mary Cooper teach the background of Rome and English derivations from Latin in Latin I and II.

Miss Ester Schachtele and Mr. Paul Sackett teach their junior and senior speech students to feel comfortable in front of an audience, to speak clearly, and to express themselves intelligently.

Sophomores are taught English fundamentals by Mr. Sackett.

Language lab.

En la clase de español los estudiantes aprenden hablar español.

English literature comes to life as Miss Schnachtele explains it.

Miss Cooper teaches "hic, haec, hoc," in Latin class.

Class song

(To the tune of More.)

Sadly, but fondly with a tearful eye,
We pay our last tribute to Bellevue High.
Much we have gained but there is much in store.
Our roots are firm, and yet we must grow more.
Onward and upward we will go,
Clutching memories, and though with our friends we'll part
We'll cherish all our happy school days.
Goodby dear Alma Mater, see that we keep your ideals
And ever try to be humble in our success,
And more, proud that we were once before
The class of sixty-four.

Honors

Student Council

The Student Council took great steps toward improvement this year. They established a foreign exchange committee to determine the possibilities of foreign exchange students in our school. Mr. Stonestreet, Student Council advisor, initiated a new form of electing Student Council members. Nomination was by self-announcement, and each candidate was required to have a senior for campaign manager. A week of campaigning was terminated by campaign speeches and voting.

Any problem that confronted the student body was discussed by the Student Council. This year's officers were: Randy Nelson, President; John Martin, Vice-president; Sue Snyder, Secretary; Vicki Good, Treasurer; Marc McClain, Sergeant-at-Arms.

Mr. Stonestreet and Randy Nelson plan for foreign exchange communication.

Mr. D'Ettorre, Advisor, and Mari-Ann Dotsenko, editor of the Dial.

Lennie Egan and Mari-Ann Dotsenko, sports editor and editor of the Dial.

Dial

Everything that happened within the school seemed to wind its way to the narrow room filled with typewriters and young journalists. No event, humorous or otherwise, escaped the vigilant watchfulness of the Dial staff. Each deadline brought a flurry of activity that marked completion of sports articles, interviews, and straight stories. Editor Mari-Ann Dotsenko and Advisor Mr. D'Ettorre scanned piles of copy searching for errors in grammar and typing.

The Dial was distributed to the students and faculty monthly free of charge. Proceeds from such activities as dances, concession stands, and the annual magazine campaign provided funds for the production of the Dial. The Dial is a member of the National Scholastic Press Association, and has won honors in competition with other high school newspapers.

Comet

Capturing memories of the first year in the new senior high school was the aim of this year's COMET staff. The nine members of the executive staff and the four members of the associate staff have worked hard to present a good yearbook to the student body. With the aid of Edwards Brothers' representative, Mr. James Hamill, Editor Judy Hulteen, Associate Editor Martha Mitchell, and Assistant Editor Lynn Hensinger planned the yearbook. Janet Johnson and Pat Miano handled the advertising, while Sherry Funk was Copy Editor. Photographers were Marcia Grubb and Sam Barrett. Jenny Voss was typist.

Quill and Scroll

Quill and Scroll elected eight new members: seniors—Jennie Ball, Sherry Funk and Pat Miano; juniors—Jean Detlefsen, Chris Franklin, Sandy Gilmore, Scherl Kistler and Sally Vickery. They joined Mari-Ann Dotsenko, Lennie Egan, Judy Hulteen, and Martha Mitchell, all elected in 1963.

To qualify for this journalism honor society, a student must be a junior or senior and be in the upper third of his class. He must have done outstanding work in editing, writing, or business management of either the DIAL or COMET.

The National Thespians Society has been initiating deserving juniors and seniors at Bellevue High School since 1930. Eligibility of students depends upon the number of lines they have or backstage jobs they undertake.

Requirements for membership are determined by using the point system. One point equals approximately ten hours of work. Ten points are necessary for Thespian membership.

The Thespian Society helps the student body appreciate the dramatic arts. All members follow the motto, "Act well your part, there all the honor lies". This year the seniors of Troup 173 honored Connie Kellar with the title "Best Thespian."

During an impressive candlelight service the senior members of the Alfred Ross Chapter of the National Honor Society inducted ten juniors and fourteen seniors into the society. Based upon the virtues of scholarship, leadership, character, and service, seniors in the upper third of their class and juniors with a ninety per cent average are eligible for membership. Only fifteen per cent of the senior class and five per cent of the junior class can be initiated.

Besides the traditional ceremony, this year's induction included the transference of Gene Eckstein's membership from his original chapter to the Alfred Ross Chapter.

NHS NASS

Eighteen boys were honored by being received into the National Athletic Scholarship Society, which is advised by Mr. Lowell Shaffer. These boys were recognized on Recognition Day. To be accepted a boy must earn a major letter in a sport and, also, maintain an eighty-seven average throughout the school year.

Gary Sams was the only one to be in the National Athletic Scholarship Society for three years. Those who have been in two years are Roger Dennis, Bob Anthony, Mike Callaghan, Jim Gampetro, and Kit Hetrick.

The Mighty Big Redmen!

NOL

Tri - Champions

For the third successive year, the BHS Redmen captured the NOL Championship. The tremendous team co-operation and spirit carried the team to a 8-1 record; the only upset was Bucyrus with an 8-14 score.

In the Northern Ohio League, the Redmen's rugged defense held the opponents to 46 points, while the powerful and speedy offense tallied 180 points. Tom Lopeman, Marc McClain, and Gary Sams placed in the top ten league scorers.

The hard charging line included Doug Smith, Dennie Norman, Roger Dennis, Jeff Crosby, Charles Hassinger, John Degler, Bob Frankfather, Sam Barrett, and Al Mason. Linebackers Mark Hoffman, Tom Lopeman, Marc McClain and Gary Sams turned in fine performances.

To complete their year, all the Redmen were honored at the annual Booster's Club Banquet.

Reserve Football

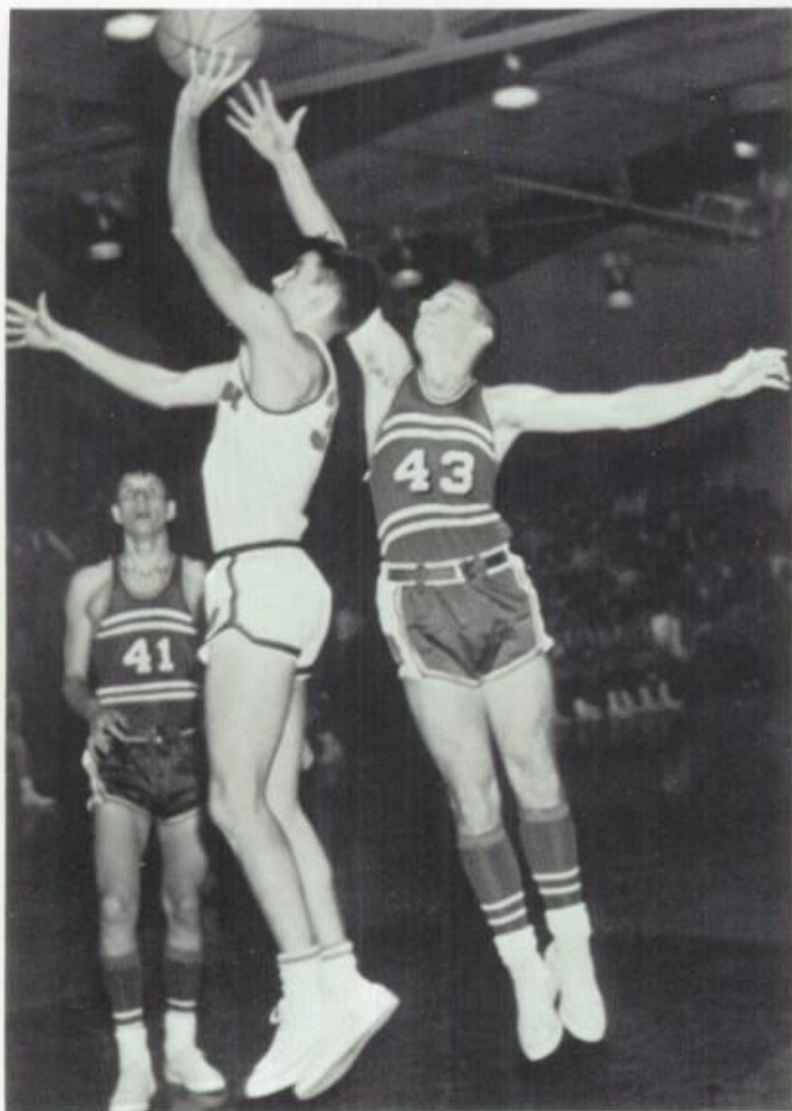

Under the excellent coaching of Mr. James Gribble and Mr. Lowell Rossman the 1963 Reserve Football Team finished their season with a 3-4 record. This was sparked by the loss of the last game to Willard which was considered to be "the best game played". Although unable to win all of their games, the boys displayed their best ability and good sportsmanship at all times. Since the main purpose of Reserve Football is teaching the fundamentals, the potential Varsity-men show great promise in the seasons to come.

A successful game for the Reserves.

Basketball

The BHS cagers completed a successful season with a 13-5 record. Coached by Mr. Larry Morrison, the team thrilled spectators at all games. The season opened with a decisive victory over Shelby. From that game through the first league game with Tiffin Columbia, Bellevue's wins and losses alternated. The next five games brought victories over Defiance, Norwalk, Huron, Bucyrus, and Perkins. After two more defeats, the season ended with three final victories.

Reserve Basketball

The reserve basketball squad wound up the season with ten wins and eight losses. Victory was the cry of the reserves for games with Shelby, Vermillion, Defiance Clyde, Huron, Perkins, Ppper Sandusky, Willard, and Galion. The other games were heartbreaking losses. Les Sherman was high-point man with 164 points. Good promise and determination were displayed for next year's varsity.

Wrestling

This year a wrestling team was formed at BHS. Under the coaching of Mr. John Halter the boys learned fundamental holds, pinning positions, plus good sportsmanship at all times.

At a special wrestling assembly, the tactics of wrestling were explained to the student body. A meet with Clyde followed the assembly.

Bellevue won four out of nine meets with a total of 186 points scored and 216 points scored against the team.

Track

New records were made by the BHS trackmen this year. Fran Hunt set a new 440 mark of 50.9. He also advanced to competition in the state meet. Craig Kronewitter set a new high jump record of 5' 11½". Coached by Mr. John Halter, the team had seven returning lettermen. They were: seniors Gary Sams, Craig Kronewitter, Randy Nelson, Doug Gildenmeister; juniors Dick Seymour, Fran Hunt, Nick Lilli. The team placed fourth in the NOL meet at Tiffin. They also took fourth place in the Bucyrus Relays.

Golf

BHS golfers recorded an 8-5-1 season for their second year. Marc McClain had the lowest nine hole average with 41.04. Kit Hetrick had 33½ for the highest number of points. The team had a good season and the underclassmen gained valuable experience.

Tennis coach: Mr. Paul Sackett.

Tennis

This year proved to be the best for Bellevue High School's tennis team. They finished the season with 10 wins and 1 loss to take over the number one position in the Northern Ohio League. In the NOL Cardinal Conference tournament at Mansfield the team finished second. Members of the team were: Roger Dennis, Jeff Crosby, Ron Gonya, Mike Callaghan, Bob Anthony, John Degler, and Owen Collins. The team was coached by Paul Sackett.

Varsity cheerleaders: Scherl Kistler, Janet Miller, Vicki Good, Pat Miano, Carol Zimmerman.

Varsity cheerleaders Vicki Good, head, Pat Miano, Scherl Kistler, Janet Miller, and Carol Zimmerman sparked the spirit of the 1963 football season.

Wearing red wool skirts with white inserts and red and white letter sweaters, they cheered the BHS Redmen football team on to another NOL Championship.

The coming of the basketball season brought the BHS Organized Cheering Section which made its debut at the first home basketball game. The group was led by the cheerleaders in many peppy cheers and clever hand jives.

For this season, the pepsters made changes of white blouses and red vests as co-ordinates for the football skirt. Reserve cheerleaders Vicky Koch, Cathy Allan and Barb Hunter chose red and white pleated skirts with red wool tops and white dickies.

The spirit jug again made a weekly appearance at pep assemblies and games.

Athletic Banquets

The NOL Banquet, sponsored by the Boosters Club, was held late in the fall. It honored the third NOL Championship Football Team. A few selected members received awards.

Each spring members of the football, basketball, tennis, track, wrestling, and golf teams are honored at the All-Sports Banquet. Highlighting the banquet was the presentation of the Knights of Columbus award and the Gazette award.

These banquets honor the boys who participate in sports. But through awards it allows those who have been outstanding in sportsmanship and ability to be recognized.

Homecoming

An enormous crowd jammed the bleachers at Harmon Field on October 4 for the 1963 Homecoming game between Willard and Bellevue. Prior to the game, the crowning festivities took place. Arriving first, in a shining convertible were two smiling underclassmen attendants: Natalie Ferry, Junior; and Vicky Koch, Sophomore. They were escorted by Dick Seymour and Bill Farr. Next came Anita Garman and Ginger Coe, senior attendants, who were escorted by Dick Nottke and Craig Kronewitter. At last, amid the throng of cheering fans, our lovely 1963 Homecoming Queen, Peg Seltzer alighted from her convertible. Her escort was Charles Ruffing. John Martin, student council vice-president, presented her Majesty with a royal bouquet of mums, crowned her, and gave her the traditional Homecoming kiss. The Queen's flower girl and ring-bearer were Jeanie Hartman and Jim Kurtz.

After the ceremonies and a royal cheer led by the cheerleaders, the Queen and her court withdrew to choice seats on the sidelines to watch the Redmen play the Flashes. Later, her Majesty and her attendants presided at the Homecoming Dance held in our new high school. The first dance of the evening was reserved for the Queen and the co-captains, Tom Lopeman and Marc McClain.

Snow Valley Lodge

The Christmas Season at BHS officially began on the evening of December sixth, when the cafeteria and hall were transformed into the enchanting Snow Valley Lodge. Amid the blue and white background, Kenny Emery's Band provided the music.

The crowning of the King and Queen of Good-Will highlighted the evening. Tom Lopeman and Judy Hulteen, who were crowned King and Queen of Good-Will, reigned over the festivities. The Choraliers and The Four entertained in honor of the King and Queen. The Choraliers sang "Jingle Bell Calypso" and "The Christmas Song". Then the lively combo known as The Four played "Green Green", "Abilene", and "Wipe Out".

"April in Paris"

The junior class honored the seniors as they presented "April in Paris" on April 25 at the annual Jr. Sr. Prom. A sidewalk cafe, complete with bridge, news pillars, and garden surrounding the terrace transformed the gym into a typical Parisian sight.

At intermission sophomore pages served ice cream, cake and punch to the couples. The Parisians, a junior singing group, sang the theme song, "April in Paris". Jim Gampe-tro and Ken Lee portrayed the Smothers' Brothers as typical American tourists. Master of Ceremonies, Jared Reitz, interpreted the menus, which were written in French. Senior Queen, Pat Miano and Junior Queen, Carol Zimmerman were crowned by class presi-dents Ken Lee and Dick Nottke, respectively. The seniors climaxed the intermission by sing-ing their class song to the tune of "More".

Y-Teens

Throughout the year Y-Teens strove to serve their community and their school in a variety of projects. The Y-Teens carried out such service projects as the Y-Drive, March of Dimes, and a Valentine party for the Flat Rock Children's Home. The Y-Teen club sponsored the Christmas formal with a theme of Snow Valley Lodge. At the "Hillbilly Hicnic" the gals escorted the guys for the evening. The Y-Teen girls and the Hi-Y boys held a joint meeting for a game of Powder Puff basketball. The parents of the Y-Teen girls attended the Buffet Supper and Candlelight Service held at St. Paul's E.&R. Church. Y-Teens' mothers attended the annual spring Mother-Daughter Banquet.

The 1963-64 officers were: President, Vicki Good; Vice-President, Mary Grace Burke; Secretary, Lana Moyer; and Treasurer, Anita Garman. The advisors were Mrs. Davenport and Mrs. Henderson.

Hi-Y

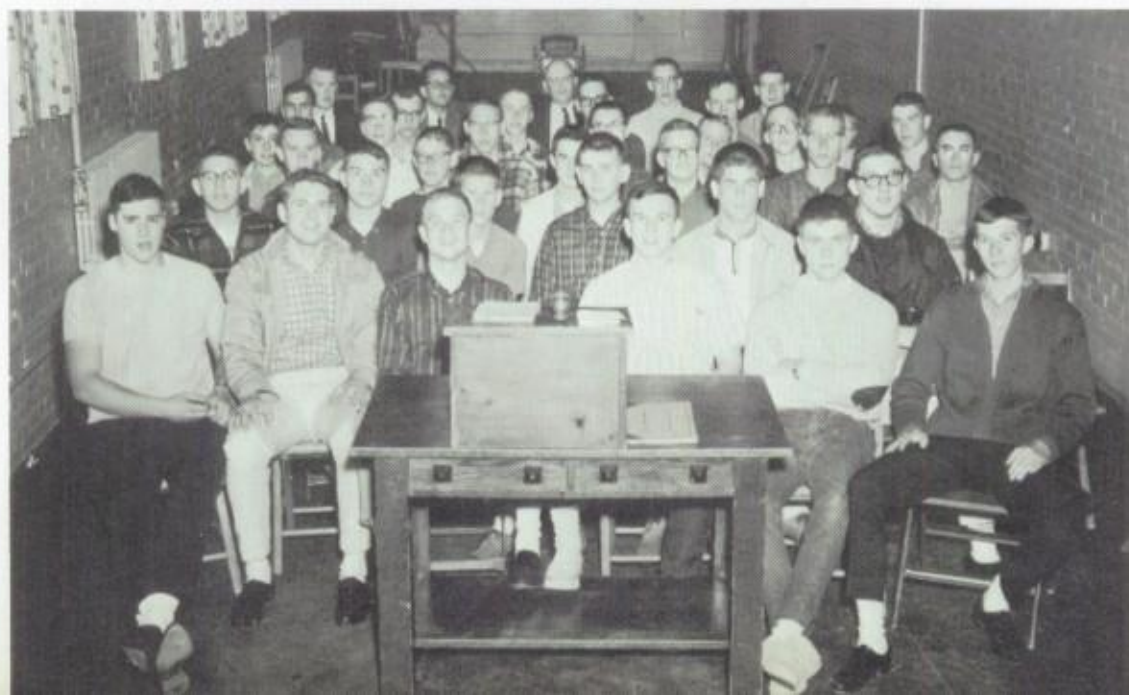

As in previous year, the Hi-Y remained an active boys Christian organization.

Meetings consisted of: a talk by the York Basketball Coach Robert Gwin on sportsmanship, an inspiring talk by Mr. Wolfe on various Bibles and their interpretations, a talk given by Sheriff John Borgia about the duties and responsibilities of his job, and a series of talks on various professions.

The club sponsors all dances after home football games which are held at the YMCA. The members and their dates went to a Heidelberg football game and also enjoyed an evening of Powder-Puff basketball with the Y-Teens.

"To create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school, and community the high standards of Christian Character, clean speech, clean scholarship, clean athletics, and clean living," the Hi-Y ideals, were carried out by President Randy Nelson, Vice-President Sam Barrett, Secretary Steve Thomas, Treasurer Jack Chapman, Chaplain Kim Zehner, and Program Chairman Dave Kuhn. The advisors were Mr. Donald Stonestreet, Mr. Herbert Wolfe, and Mr. Wilbur White.

FTA

The Zella Bell Chapter of the Future Teachers of America, led by President Ruthann Kihn, continued its work, with the membership rising to sixty-five. Other officers included: Lana Moyer, Vice-President; Natalie Ferry, Secretary; Mary Grace Burke, Treasurer; and Margaret Baker, Historian. The FTA year was highlighted by many interesting programs. At the November meeting, Mrs. Dewayne Burke, the guest speaker, gave an enlightening speech on "The Teaching of a Special Class." The Mother-Daughter Tea, held in February, was honored to have as its guest speaker, Mr. Robert Regula, the principal of Bellevue High School. Advisors, Mrs. Ann Miller and Mr. Merrill Downing also presented interesting discussions at other meetings. Junior and seniors were also given a chance to examine and teach classes on the elementary and high school level.

The purposes of the club which were stressed throughout the year, follow the idealistic goals of young people working and preparing to become future teachers.

FTA Officers: Margaret Baker, Mary Grace Burke, Natalie Ferry, Lana Moyer.

FHA President, Dianne Seibel, and Advisor, Miss Alice Tommas.

Future Homemakers of America is the school organization which is concerned with the domestic and cultural life of students. To promote a growing appreciation of the joys and satisfactions of homemaking and to emphasize the importance of a worthy home membership are two of the club's goals. It further proposes to encourage democracy in the home and community and to work for a good family life.

The calendar opened this year with a picnic for the members. On October 23, Formal Initiation of all new members was held at the Senior High School. The club also played host to the Attica chapter for a "Volleyball Party" on January 15.

One of the biggest activities of the year was a style show at Ellis School. At this social meeting the girls modeled clothes that they made during the school year. Freshmen members were invited to attend.

Miss Alice Tommas, who took her new post as Home Economic teacher this year, is the club advisor.

Choir

The Bellevue a cappella choir presented its annual Christmas concert on December 15. In December they also recorded for WLEC radio station in Sandusky. On February 8 the a cappella choir, the Sophomore Girls chorus, and the Freshmen Choir combined with the orchestra and band to present "A Festival of Music".

The spring concert, presented on May 9, was patterned after a regular college concert. An extra added attraction were the Choraliers, a select group chosen from the a cappella choir. A new experience for voice students was the chance to participate in contests.

One of the highlights of the year came when the choir acted as host to other N.O.L. choirs at the N.O.L. Choral Festival. Willard, Shelby, and Tiffin Columbian were other schools participating.

Pep Band

Adding spirit to the football and basketball seasons, the BHS Pep Band played at pep assemblies and during basketball games. The Pep Band was under the direction of Mr. Dubbert.

Orchestra

The BHS Orchestra participated in various concerts and programs this year. Directed by Miss Louella Welford, the orchestra also completed several projects. They sponsored a car wash and spent the money they obtained for red blazers. The orchestra played for the class plays, the NHS assembly, Baccalaureate, and Commencement.

Orchestra officers: John Fryar, Connie Kellar, Deanna DeWitt, and Jeff Crosby.

Band director Mr. Dubert, President Dick Nottke, band director Mr. Leckrone.

Band

The 1963-64 BHS Band, under the direction of Mr. Robert Leckrone and his new assistant—Mr. Robert Dubert, had an eventful and successful year.

Throughout the football season the Marching Band performed varied and interesting half-time shows.

Selected members of the Concert Band composed the Pep Band which furnished music for all pep rallies and home basketball games.

The District Two Band Festival, held at Lakota, was attended by several members.

Combined with the orchestra and the choir, the Concert Band presented a "Festival of Music." In March, the band gave a concert at the new School. That was the first concert to be held there.

Bellevue was awarded several honors for participation in solo and ensemble contest at Fremont and District Two Band Contest at Clyde.

The NOL Festival, held in Upper Sandusky, and the All-City Band Concert were May activities. Band members were recognized with a dinner and program, sponsored by Band Boosters, on May 5.

During the summer, three band members will participate in the All-Ohio Boys Band in Columbus.

Math Club

In order to further their understanding of mathematics, juniors and seniors organized a Math Club this year. President Gary Sams led the group, while John Artino served as Vice-President. Mari-Ann Dotsenko was Secretary-Treasurer and Sherry Funk worked as her assistant. The club met every other Wednesday under the direction of Mr. Vilas Deane and Mr. Wilbur White. A variety of programs including mathematical puzzles, histories of great mathematicians, the calculation of pi with only .05% error, and a visit to the radar tracking station at Oberlin created enjoyable and educational experiences for all members.

GAA

The most important function of the Girls' Athletic Association is the sponsoring of the intramural program, conducted over the lunch period. To become a GAA member, a girl must earn 80 points by participating in the various intramurals. A letter is awarded for 250 points, while 400 points will entitle a girl to a silver pin.

At the end of the year, Mrs. Genevieve Pendleton presents the GAA award to the senior girl with the highest number of points. Activities of the 1963-64 GAA included participating in playdays with area schools and buying a full-length mirror for the girls' locker room.

Officers were Lana Moyer, president; Paula Dendinger, vice-president; Janet Miller, secretary; Bertha Miller, treasurer.

"Curtain Going Up"

"Perhaps you've seen me—either in the theater, on screen, or on television."

On November 8 and 9, the Senior Class presented "Curtain Going Up", a comedy in three acts. The plot centered around the trials Miss Burgess, a new teacher at Riverview High, encountered while producing a class play. Her problems included the grouchy janitor, disappearing playbooks, a stagestruck heroine, a playboy actor, a disgruntled athlete, a flamboyant actress, crossed-up high school romances, plus a romance of her own.

The presentation consisted of many innovations including a play within a play, entrances made from the audience, and an almost bare stage.

Miss Mary Leininger directed the play with the aid of student directors Lynn Hensinger, Kay Monarchi, and Peg Seltzer.

"Jealous? Me—?"

Student directors, Peg Seltzer, Kay Monarchi, Lynn Hensing, and director Miss Leininger discuss the play.

"This must be settled on the field of honor."

"Oh, Clarissa, he's so handsome!"

"Deadly Ernest"

On April tenth and eleventh the Junior Class Play, "Deadly Ernest", was presented, with Mr. Paul Sackett as director. The hero of the play, Henry Gilcrest, encountered a streak of bad luck when he lost his room at Aunt Ethel's boarding house, his job and his girl. So, he paid Mr. Bumpus seventeen dollars and eighty-three cents to put him out of his misery by exterminating him. He was told that a man named "Ernest" would do the job. From then on Henry considered himself plagued by Ernie, Ernestine, C. E. Grimm ("E" for Ernest), and Dr. Ernest. He was in constant fear because any one of them could be "Ernest".

Finally, Henry discovered that Mr. Bumpus was not really going to do away with him. He got his girl, his job, and his room back and all ends well.

"Gee Boss, I . . ."

The seniors await the beginning of the Senior Assembly.

Senior Assembly

The student body reminisced with the senior class of '64, the highlights of their last year at B.H.S. as Nancy Russell and Bill Garlic strolled down memory lane. The senior class play, the senior class party, and other activities were recalled by little skits presented by seniors who participated in the activities during the year. The readings of the traditional class will and prophecy brought the program to a close. Lynn Hensinger acted as mistress of ceremony.

Jack Chapman reads poetry to the underclassmen while seniors listen.

Kim Zehner and Kathy Ryan reveal the class prophecy.

Steve Thomas and Lynn Hensinger reading the senior will.

Nancy Russell and Bill Garlic review the senior year.

Judy Hulteen and Gary Sams gives the rolling pin award to Janet Miller and Mark Hoffman.

Randy Nelson gives the "stinker award" to Bill Kahle.

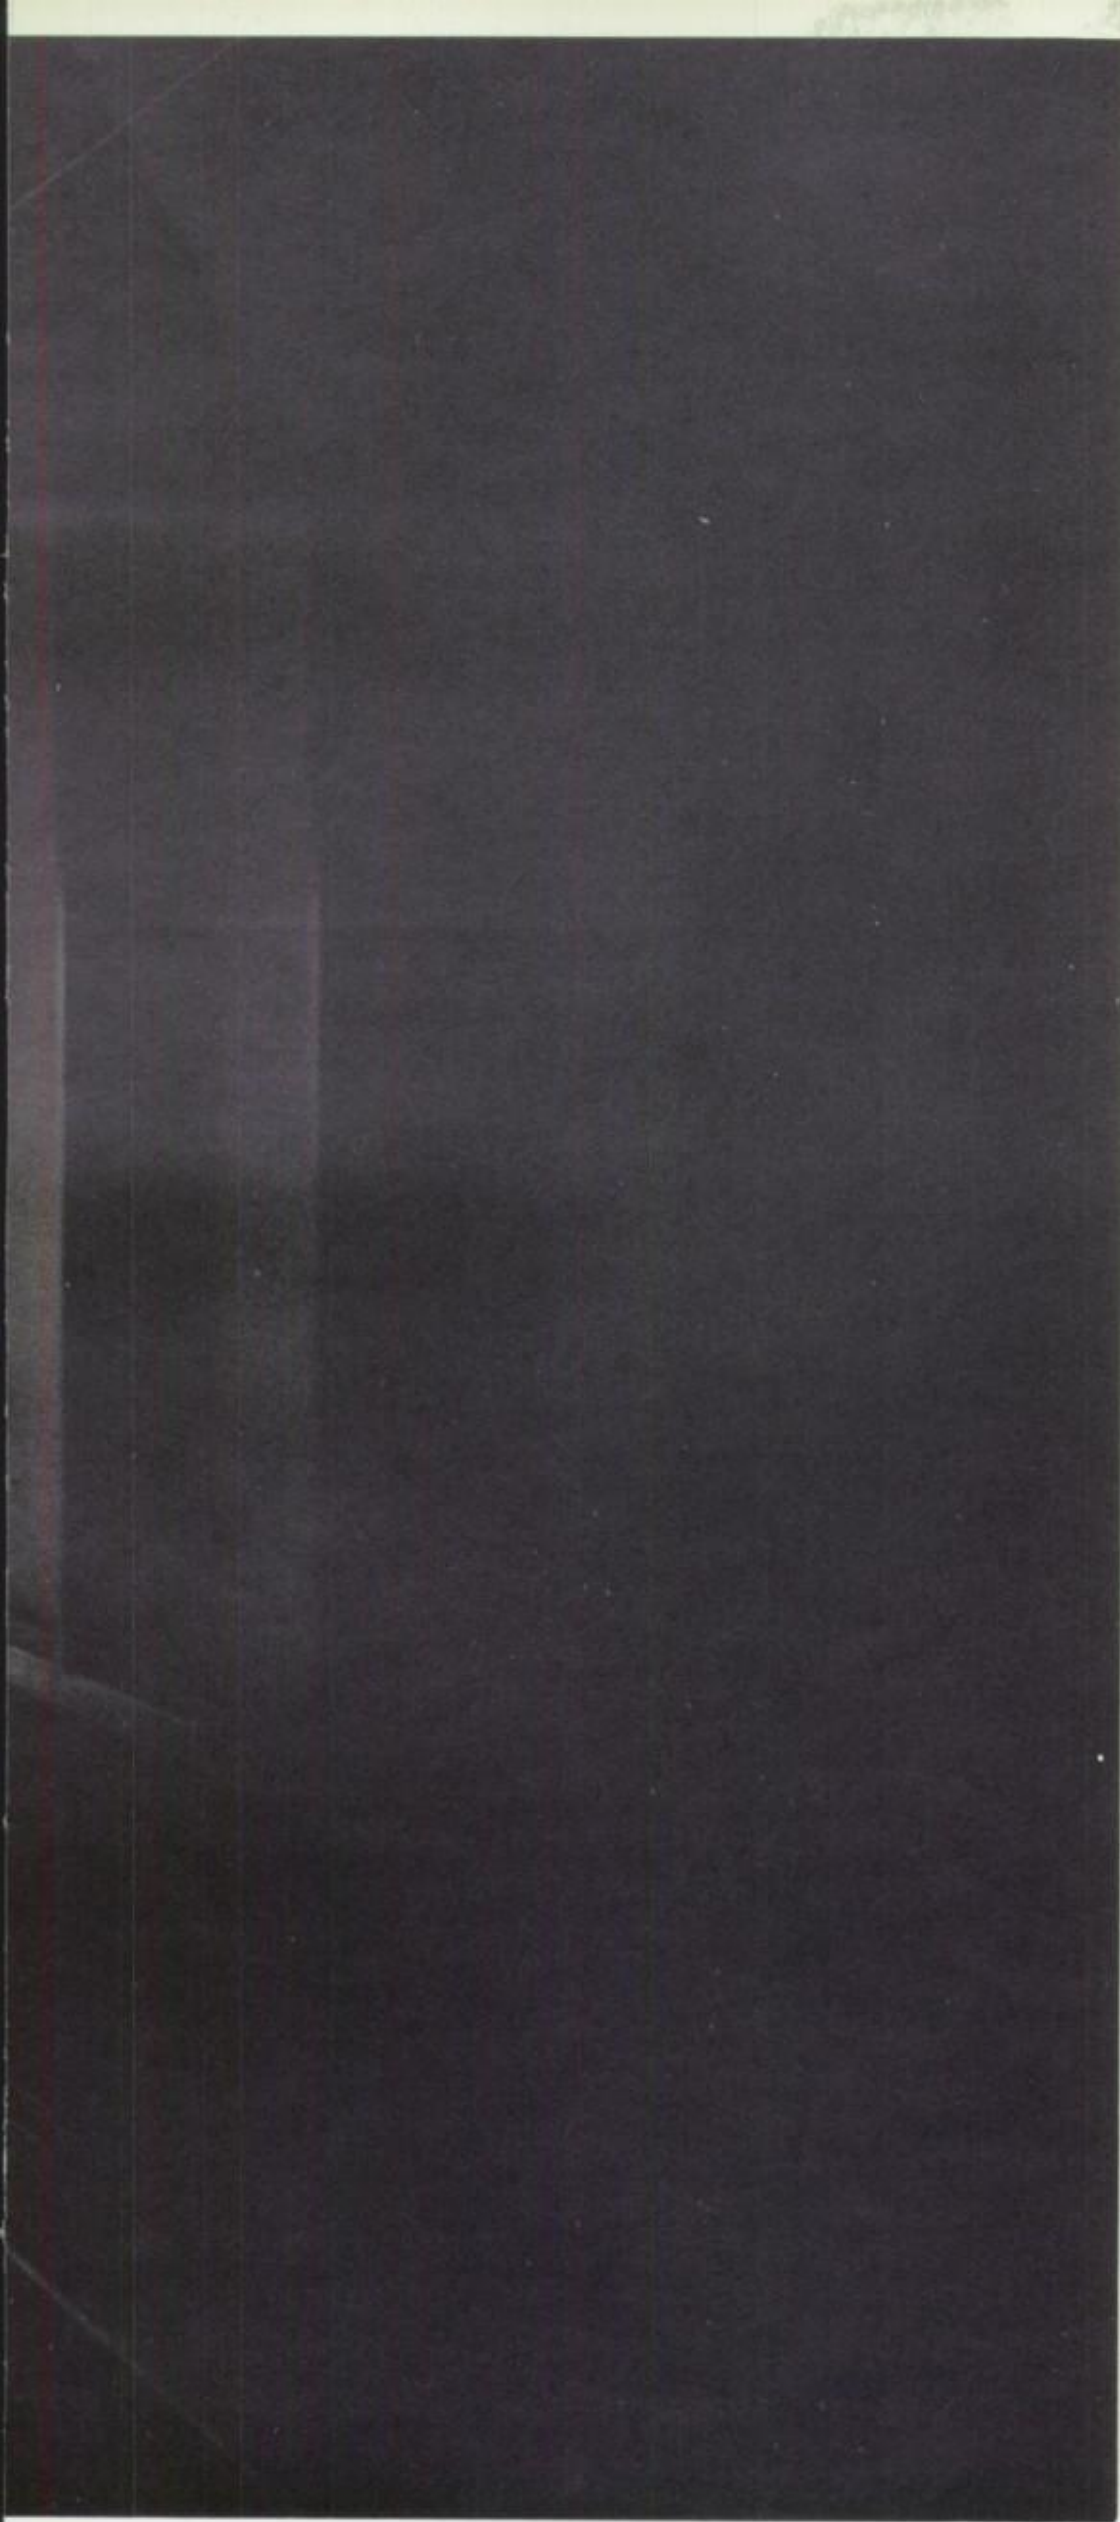

Craig Kronewitter and Roger Dennis giving out an award to Bob Black.

Janet Johnson reads to the sophomores the "Constitution."

Student Council officers: Carol Raish, Dave Doster, Pat Frost and Jon Archer.

Seventh grade student council members are M. Stevens, T. Nation, B. Hunt, M. Degler, M. Leiber.

Ninth grade student council members are P. Frost, J. Daniels, D. Doster, T. Southworth, P. Hoffman, R. Barton, D. Stark, C. Raish.

Eighth grade student council members are E. Hass, J. Archer, J. Terveen, P. Close.

Student Council

With the Junior High School and Senior High School separated many new problems arose. One problem was student government of the Junior High.

From this problem developed a new organization—the Junior High Student Council. The members were elected in the same manner as the high school students.

This successful organization, which was lead by President Dave Doster, solved many of the problems concerning the Junior High.

In the spring elections were held to determine next year's student council members.

The freshmen choir worked very hard preparing for their concerts and did a very fine job.

Chorus

Freshmen choir officers T. Clouchette, L. Grimm, C. Hulteen, B. Lepley, B. Nottke, D. Doster.

The eighth graders worked hard in choir during the year 1963-64 in order that they may take the places of the freshmen.

Seventh graders took pride in their choirs. They had two groups which worked very hard.

The 1963-64 Cadet Band poses in front of the Junior High.

Band

The Seventh Grade Band and the Cadet Band were well represented this year. They were directed by Mr. Robert Leckrone and Mr. Robert Dubbert.

Both bands participated in the Junior High Music Festival and other band concerts and contests.

The Cadet Band was active this year. It began the year by giving a fine performance for a football game. Later in the spring it participated in the Junior High Band Contest.

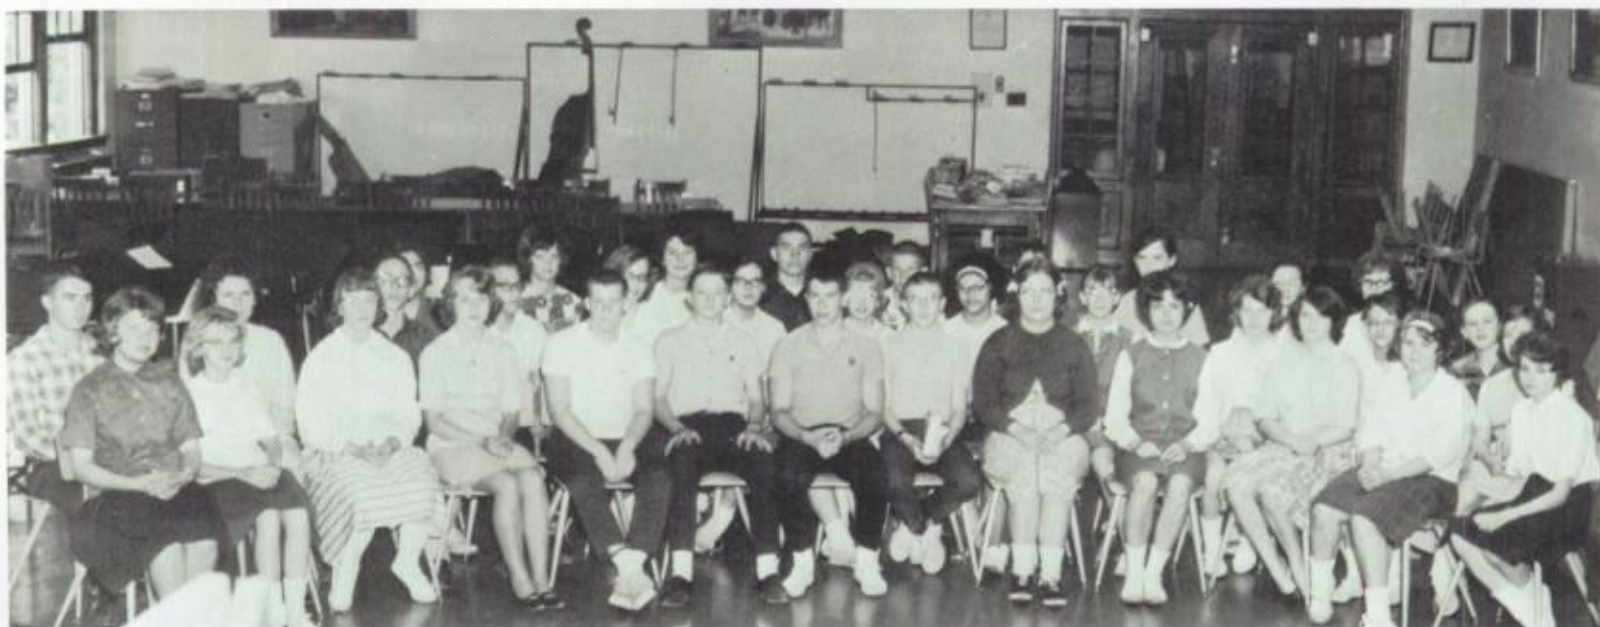

Band officers B. Nottke, D. Doster, C. Raish, and K. Mitchell.

Cadet Band Majorettes D. Helber, K. Angello, L. Reffner, J. Case.

The seventh grade band did a fine job this year and gives Bellevue something to look forward to.

The Junior High Orchestra has made much improvement during the year.

Orchestra

The Junior High Orchestra gained valuable experience for future use in the Senior High Orchestra.

Throughout the school year the orchestra participated in concerts and the Junior High Music Festival.

The orchestra is directed by Miss Wolford. During the year the orchestra had the experience of being directed by a student teacher for several weeks.

Orchestra officers are T. Passarello, P. Close, J. Howard, D. Dyke.

Vocabulary down winner at the Junior High is Dixie Foster.

Dee Foust was the first winner of the spelldown held in the Junior High.

Junior High Basketball

The freshmen were declared champs of the league.

Basketball was a favorite sport at the Junior High this year. The teams thrilled their audiences at each game. They finished the year with excellent records.

The seventh grade team showed by their performance that they had learned the fundamentals of basketball well. Under the coaching of Mr. Robert Birtch, the team ended the season with a 12-2 record.

Coach Larry Renninger's eighth grade boys climaxed their season with an 11-2 record.

The ninth grade team was coached by Mr. Lowell Shaffer. Not only did they post a remarkable 13-1 seasonal record, but they also captured the league tournament.

Service

Secretaries for the superintendent's office are Mrs. Dawley Brown and Mrs. Virginia Frankenfield. In the high school office Miss Martha Sams, Mrs. Lilli, and Mrs. Reininger complete the staff. Miss Rita Herner in the Junior High secretary.

Custodians for the junior and senior high schools are: Mr. Ralph Widmer, Mr. Harold Shelley, Mr. Dick Linder, Mr. Emil Christensen, Mr. Ray Reitz, Mrs. Hartman and Mrs. Veith.

The cafeteria cooks are under the supervision of Mrs. Langwell. They are: Mrs. Hul-teen, Mrs. Blair, Mrs. Nicely, Mrs. Emery, and Mrs. Green.

Mrs. Wager greatly improved the new high school library. Mrs. Downing was her assistant. Mrs. Fisher was in charge of the junior high library.

Mr. Downing aided students as guidance counselor.

Miss Martha Sams and Mrs. Bonnie Renninger keep things moving smoothly in the principal's office.

Mrs. Virginia Frankenfield and Mrs. Dawley Brown.

Miss Rita Herner is the junior high's office girl.

Mr. Merrill Downing—B. S., Kent State University, M.A., Arizona State University; guidance counselor.

Mrs. Arleen Downing and Mrs. Catherine Fisher are the junior high librarians.

Mrs. Jean Hartman and Mrs. Janet Veith have been a great help this year.

Mrs. Green, Mrs. Emery, Mrs. Hulteen, Mrs. Langwell, Mrs. Blair, and Mrs. Nicely are the high school cafeteria cooks.
